A New Song
Glimpses of the Grace Journey

The contributors to this collection have been inspired by the words of the psalmist:

"I waited patiently for the LORD,
and He turned to me and heard my cry for help
He brought me up from a desolate pit,
out of the muddy clay, and set my feet on a rock,
making my steps secure.

He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the LORD"
Psalm 40:1-3 (HCSV).

Following the psalmist's example, we have remembered our histories with God, describing His rescue, our salvation, His comfort in a time of crisis, or leading when we needed a new direction. We hope that our collective hymn of praise will cause many to "see and fear and put their trust in the LORD."

"My heart bursts its banks,
spilling beauty and goodness.
I pour it out in a poem to the King,
shaping the river into words"
(Psalm 45:1 Msg).
